Each Employer has recognized the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for its employees with reference to wages, hours, working conditions, and benefits.

SECTION 4. UNION REPRESENTATIVE:

Each Employer shall recognize and deal with such representatives of its employees as the Union may elect or appoint and shall permit such representative elected or appointed by the Union to visit its place of business during working hours to meet with employees and the Employer, but such visitation shall not cause an interruption of the Employer's operation.

SECTION 5. RECORDS:

Each Employer agrees to notify the Union, in writing, of any new hires subject to this Agreement within thirty (30) days of such hire and shall include in the notification the name, home address, wage rate, position, and social security number and such other information as may be required under the terms of the Employer's Addendum.

SECTION 6 BARGAINING UNIT:

This Agreement covers all employees of the Employer, excluding supervisors' managers and guards as defined in the National Labor Relations Act.

ARTICLE II - RECOGNITION

The Association and its member Employers recognize the Union in whatever affiliation it might have as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agent for all covered employees described in Article I in respect to wage increases, rate of pay, hours of work, and all other conditions of employment to be observed by the parties.

ARTICLE III - UNION SHOP

It shall be a condition of employment that all employees of Employers of the Association who are members of the Union in good standing on the effective date of this Agreement shall remain members in good standing and those who are not members on the effective date of this Agreement shall, on or after the 30th day following the effective date of this Agreement, or whatever the Addendum requires, become and remain in good standing in the Union. It shall also be a condition of employment that all employees hired on or after the effective date of this Agreement shall, on or after the 30th day following the beginning of such employment, or whatever the Addendum requires, become and remain members in good standing in the Union, unless otherwise prohibited by law.

To receive pay for a holiday not worked, an employee must work on the work day preceding and following the holiday, if he is scheduled to do so, unless otherwise excused. Employees on authorized vacation shall nevertheless be entitled to holiday pay if the holiday falls during their vacation period. Employees shall not lose their holiday pay if they have permission from management to be absent on the day preceding or following the holiday. Days absent before or after a holiday shall be

SECOND: If the grievance is not settled in the first step, and the employee wishes to appeal, the grievance shall be presented to the Union Steward and the Supervisor.

THIRD: If not satisfactorily settled in the foregoing step, the grievance is to be referred to the Business Agent of the Union who shall have the right to present the grievance to the President of the Employer or his duly authorized representatives.

FOURTH: If the matter is not settled in the foregoing step, the Union at its discretion may refer such matter to a Joint Committee composed of a representative of the Union and a representative of the Association. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator within ten (10) days, the matter may be referred to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) for the selection of an arbitrator. The dispute shall be processed and heard under AAA's "Expedited Labor Arbitration Rules" at AAA's Chicago location unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the Union and the Association. The decision of such arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties. It is agreed, however, that an arbitrator shall have no right to add to, take from or modify any of the provisions of this Agreement. The fee and expenses of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the parties except, in those cases where the arbitration is a result of a disagreement over the interpretation or implementation of the terms contained in those Articles governing the Employer's participation in the Midwest Pension Plan or the Central States Joint Board Health and Welfare Trust Fund. In these cases the party which the arbitrator has ruled against shall bear the entire cost of the arbitrators' fees and expenses.

SECTION 2. ARBITRATION.

If the grievance is settled following the filing with the American Arbitration Association (AAA), but prior to the arbitration hearing, all costs of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and any arbitrator fees incurred by the party initiating the filing shall be paid for by the other party.

An employee who requests family or Medical Leave cannot be transferred to another position without the approval of the Union.

Absent extraordinary conditions, an employee must report to work within forty-eight (48) hours upon expiration of the leave of absence. Failure to report for work within the prescribed period of time shall result in the forfeiture of all seniority rights and privileges under this Agreement.

SECTION 2. COMMENCEMENT.

SECTION 3. TERMINATION.

An employee shall lose all seniority rights if:

- (a) He quits voluntarily and is not reinstated within five (5) days; or

Probationary employees may be laid off or discharged as exclusively determined by the employer, provided that this provision will not be used for purposes of discrimination because of membership in the Union. Probationary employees continued in the service of the Employer subsequent to the thirty (30) days from date of original hiring or whatever the Addendum requires shall receive full continuous service credit from date of original hiring.

SECTION 5. APPLICATION.

The parties hereto recognize that promotional opportunity and job security in event of promotions, decrease of forces and rehiring after layoffs should increase in proportion to length of continuous service and that in the administration of this Section the intent will be wherever practicable that the more senior employee will receive the promotion or job security.

SECTION 6. SENIORITY LIST.

A complete record of the names arranged in order of seniority, of all employees who have not lost their seniority rights, shall be maintained by the Employer and the Association. A copy of such list shall be submitted to the Union office at six (6) months intervals and also shall be made available to Union representatives and the Union Stewards whenever any of said parties makes a request for same.

Wherever there is a job opening the Employer shall notify employees for a period of forty-eight (48) hours. An employee desiring to apply for an opening must make his application within the forty-eight (48) hour period. If no employee desires the job, the Employer shall be free to take whatever action it deems appropriate. If one (1) or more employees apply for such opening, the Employer shall be required to use its best efforts to give said job to the employee with the most seniority, consistent with skill and ability to perform the job, provided such employee is qualified.
